Pastor's Paragraphs

Sometimes it is said, "Knowledge breeds confidence." That is true. It is also true that studying means and methods of leading lost sinners to Christ generates enthusiasm in our hearts for doing the work of evangelism. For the last two Sunday nights and in our "Praying Your Neighbors to Christ" focus, we have been studying ways to witness our faith to others. It's been exciting for me. Like many of you, for me, it was a refresher course, but a refresher course I sorely needed. I hope and pray that these days of focus on personal witnessing will lead to the salvation of souls and to each of us being better equipped and excited about this, what has been called, the "royal employment." Sign up forms and informational literature are available at the welcome center if you have not yet signed up. It's a simple plan that anyone can do. Go ahead and do it. You will be glad you did. Call me or any member of our staff or evangelism team if you have any questions.

Next Sunday is Promotion Day in Sunday school. Please pray for our children and young people and their teachers as they launch into this new Sunday school year.

For now, I plan to continue preaching on Sunday mornings through the great New Testament book of Romans. I believe every Christian should seek to master this great book which sets forth in a systematic way some of the fundamental truths of the gospel and answers some of the timeless questions about our faith. I hope you will plan to get in on every service, and invite a friend. September 9 is our Anniversary Sunday, and October 21 is "Friend Sunday," when we will have special testimonies and a simple message on the plan of salvation. Bring yourself, your Bible, and a friend.

See you Sunday, Bro. Russ
