Pastor's Paragraphs

Thank you! Thank you! - to all those in our music ministries who worked so hard to make Sunday's Easter Service such a great and blessed worship experience. A special thanks is due to our own John Borengasser for his leadership in making all this possible. Well done! Our hearts will never be the same. We were challenged to love and serve the Lord to a greater degree. Gospel seed was sown that will doubtless bear fruit. Thanks to each one of you!

Let's continue to reflect on the resurrection for a few minutes. When the women came early to the tomb that Sunday morning and encountered, not the body of Jesus, but a great angel who had rolled the stone away, they received important instructions about what to do. These instructions may certainly be applied to each one of us.

First, the angel said, "Fear not." Often in the Bible this is the word from a heavenly being to man when something miraculous or awesome has taken place. "God is in control," he was saying in essence. "Don't be afraid. He is doing something remarkable and you are a part of it."

Secondly, the angel instructed: "Come, and see the place where the Lord lay." It was fortunate that the tomb was only borrowed, because Jesus did not need it for long! "Look at the empty tomb," the angel was saying. "Jesus has risen from the dead!"

Finally, the word was, "Go quickly and tell his disciples." This kind of news must be told. The telling of it, and the believing and receiving of it, changes one's eternity.

"Don't be afraid." "Come and see." "Go and tell." Let these words from that first Easter motivate and inspire us. There is no need to fear; God is in complete control. Jesus has risen; he is alive; and he is Lord. We need to tell others of this good news.

See you Sunday, Bro. Russ

A Word from John

It was truly a glorious time of worship as our choir presented, "Glorious Day" on Easter Sunday. Thank you choir, soloists, narrators and a/v team for your work on the presentation! Praise God for the hope we have in our risen Savior, Jesus Christ!

"Glorious, risen Savior; victorious, mighty King! Forever He reigns, glorious!"

Choir Spring Presentations—May 4th at 6:15pm
On Sunday, May 4th in the evening service the preschool choir will have their spring music presentation. Come hear these young voices sing songs about Jesus and the love of God. You will be blessed.

Following the preschool choir presentation will be the children's choir presentation of the new musical, "iAM". Join us as the children meet Solomon, the head App designer at the App Factory who has been working on his most important App ever, "iAM."

The children are looking forward to presenting this musical for our church family and friends. Please pray for them as they make final preparations at these upcoming rehearsals:

Sunday, April 27 at 4:00-6:05 pm (Dress Rehearsal)

Please be in prayer for the people of East Asia that they will be reached with the gospel. Prayer and support for this trip is much appreciated. You may provide support through the church by making checks payable to First Southern Baptist Church, marked "East Asia Mission Trip."
