Pastor's Paragraphs

As you read this, I will be in Mexico working with Alan Woody, our IMB Missionary in the Bajío region of Mexico, and with Wenceslao Vergara, pastor of our partner church, First Baptist Church of Landa de Matamoros, Querétaro, Mexico. We will also be partnering, for this particular project, with the Columbia Institute, a ministry that focuses on providing high quality training for educational and other professionals around the world, teaching English as a second language. This is usually a high demand service, and our part is just one component in the overall process. Of course, our ultimate aim is to lead people to know Christ and to help empower Pastor Wenceslao and the Landa Church to do the same. Pastor Wenceslao is excited about the possibilities that this service to educational professionals in his community will open up for the spread of the gospel. "All is vain," of course, "unless the Spirit of the Lord comes down." Please pray that this project will result in many people coming to Christ.

Be sure to be present Sunday night, Sept. 7 at 6:15 p.m. to hear our special guest preacher, Dr. D. Ray Davis, Associate Vice President for Church and Partner Connections with our International Mission Board. It will be a blessing!

"Let no one despise your youth," Paul said, "But be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity" (1 Tim. 4:12). What the world needs to see is real Christians, indwelt by the Spirit of God, being transformed by the gospel into vibrant lovers of Christ and their fellow man. Will you ask God to make you that kind of Christian? See you Sunday, Bro. Russ

A Word from Nick

Brothers and Sisters,

I would like to take a moment and encourage you by something that I read recently about the affections that we should have for God after we have experienced the free grace of salvation. This comes from Tim Keller's book Center Church and details the way that Jonathan Edwards, the great 18th century pastor and theologian, describes the way that our affections should be for God.

"Jonathan Edwards explored the difference between genuine gospel-triggered heart change and moralistic compliance with God's law. In Nature of True Virture, he contrasted these two kinds of moral behavior as 'common morality' and 'true virtue.' Edwards argued that if our highest love is our family, we will ultimately choose our family's good over the good of other families; if our highest love is our nation, we will choose our nation's interests and ignore those of other countries; if our highest love is our own individual interests, we will choose to serve ourselves over seeking to meet the needs of others.

Only if our highest love is God himself can we love and serve all people, families, classes, races; and only God's saving grace can bring us to the place where we are loving and serving God for himself alone and not for what he can give us. Unless we understand the gospel, we are always obeying God for our sake and not for his." (pg. 68)

My prayer for myself and our church is that our highest love and priority in this life would be God. If he is not in your life, remind yourself of the good news that can set you free from the error and bondage of man-centered religion. We love God for his sake and not for our own. We love God for who he is and not for what we can get out of him. Remind yourself daily of what Jesus said was the greatest commandment:

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind."

- Matthew 22:37

Nick Scott

Discipleship Training

Discipleship Training this fall (beginning on September 7th) will include a 13 week study of "Shepherding a Child's Heart" by Ted Tripp. Adults of all ages and stages of life are invited to participate to gain a biblical perspective on parenting. Sign-up sheet is at the welcome desk.

Youth Discipleship Training

Begins September 7th at 5:00 PM. Be there!

Preschool & Children's Choirs

will resume on Sunday night, September 7, 2014 at 5:00 PM. Evening worship service time will then start at 6:15 PM.

FSBC Missions ...

Our next International Missions Focus is a trip to Landa, Mexico, this week to plan, prepare, and train for four trips in 2015. These trips are in partnership with the international organization, Columbia Institute, for teaching English as a second language. David Bankes and Bro. Russ are in Landa this week to receive orientation and training to lead this 2015 focus. Please pray.

Did you know that our church has a Missions Fund? This fund has helped finance the mission trips we have been taking and provides for other needs on the mission field. You can contribute by noting "Missions Fund" on your offering. The Missions Team oversees this fund and reports at our bi-monthly business meeting.

Are You Missing

a coat, jacket, Bible or umbrella? Please check the coatroom for any missing coats or jackets. Any items still left in there after September 1, 2014 will be donated to the Salvation Army. There is a collection of umbrellas & several Bibles that will be at the Welcome Center.
