Pastor's Paragraphs

Sunday is Mother's Day. We will honor and recognize mothers in the service next Sunday. Bring your mother to church, or come to church with your mother. What a great gift that would be! If you can't be with her on Mother's Day, send her a card and get her a gift. "Honor thy father and thy mother," remember. If your mother is deceased, God bless you and comfort and encourage your heart. You can remember all the things she taught you and the love she showed you. Live your life in such a way as to honor her memory.

Proverbs 31 sings the praises of the "virtuous woman," concluding with these words: "Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that fears the Lord, she shall be praised." True beauty begins on the inside, with a heart that is being conformed to the image of Christ, one whose character is becoming more like that of our Lord each day. That process begins, of course, by believing in Christ, receiving him as savior and lord. One who comes to Christ, male or female, becomes a new creature with the inner power coming from God enabling her to become more like Christ.

Timothy was a young, faithful, and trusted associate of Paul the apostle. There are two books of the Bible written to him. He accompanied Paul on his missionary journeys and was held in high esteem by the apostolic community in the New Testament. His believing mother had an inestimable impact on the faith of this mighty servant of God. Paul mentions it. He speaks to Timothy of the "Unfeigned faith that is in you which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in you also," 2 Tim. 1:5. Later, he reminds Timothy that "From a child you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus," 3:15. The power and influence of a godly mother on her children is huge. Never underestimate it.

Happy Mother's Day!

See you in Church, Bro. Russ
